The International Security Management Association (ISMA), a premier international security association of senior security executives from major business organizations located worldwide, has announced that its Membership Services & Operations Manager, Lacey Miller, has earned a credential as a Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) from the Events Industry Council.

The CMP programme was launched in 1985 to enhance the knowledge and performance of meeting professionals, promote the status and credibility of the meeting profession, and advance uniform standards of practice. The CMP credential is recognised globally as the badge of excellence in the events industry. The qualifications for certification are based on experience, education, and a rigorous exam.

“Lacey has been a stalwart member of the ISMA staff for many years, and we are so pleased that she has earned this well-deserved credential as a Certified Meeting Professional. We look forward to her continuing to bring her enhanced knowledge and expertise to bear in serving our membership and delivering events of unparalleled quality” remarks Liz Chamberlin, ISMA Executive Director.

ISMA is a 501(c)(6) not for profit organization with a mission to provide members with a global, trusted, and unrivalled peer information sharing network, a forum for robust thought leadership, and relevant professional development.
